A Word from our President Les Langmead

If you haven't had a look at the exhibition of portraits in our studio, I recommend that you make an outing of it. It's the sort of exhibition that makes you want to move slowly and look closely.

The exhibition is also a strong celebration of the human family in our diversity. At a time when voices in our community are saying that some humans have more right to exist than others, art is a strong way to show respect for all of us.

I have been going to the portrait sessions myself for a few months now. Like life drawing, there is something demanding but special about attending to a real life model. And it's been a relief to find, again, that all levels of skill are respected. You might even consider offering for you or one of yours to be a model!

Coordinators are working hard arranging workshops. Keep an eye on these and be prepared to jump in the deep end.

Portrait Studio Exhibition continues

What a great exhibition! We have had some wonderful models at our portrait sessions, and works featured ranged from tiny pastel and pencil drawings, to large acrylic canvasses. Thank you to all members who brought their works in. This exhibition will be replaced by drawings from the Japanese brush painting workshop being held in May.

Studio Gallery Sales

Painting Sales (not cards): Write a receipt and inform the artist or the treasurer.

For Card Sales, note who the artist is (back of card). The money goes to the artist. Receipt book, envelopes for cash and sales list etc are in the plastic sales box, in the meeting room.

AT LAST! HOT WATER IN THE STUDIO!

We have a hot water service installed in the Studio kitchen.

As it heats up well in about 5-10 minutes, Please switch it on when you open the studio.

ALSO please switch it off before closing up otherwise the running cost will be enormous.

The switch is beside the unit under the bench.

Acrylics and Mixed Media Group

Members have an opportunity to get together on the 2nd Saturday of each month at the studio to do artwork as a group, in any medium. It is a good time to experiment, share ideas and interact with others interested in doing art. You can follow the suggested themes, prepare for your entry into the Plant Farm exhibition which changes every two months, or just do your own thing! Jill Scanlon is the coordinator.

WANTED: SPACE IN OUR STOREROOM SO SHELVES CAN BE RECONSTRUCTED

There are some frames, backing boards, canvasses, assorted vessels with art mediums, cleaners, paint etc, spray bottles, water jars and other assorted stuff which needs to be moved so some renovations can be made. It would help us greatly if you could remove things you own over the next few weeks, so this can be done. The old air con has been removed and it looks so much better. It will be even better when the tables fit in the shelves properly, cleaning equipment rationalised and a place made for all essential equipment.

THANK YOU to FINER FRAMES for the DEMO EVENING 26TH MARCH

Finer Frames, 59 High Street, Wodonga. 5.30 to 7pm

A small group of members took advantage of the opportunity to get together at the Finer Frames shop in Wodonga, to chat about framing and learn about the options available to choose the right materials for framing particular works. They offer a discount to AWAS members. Flash your AWAS membership card!

AWAS TUTORED WORKSHOP: Sumi-e (Japanese ink and brush painting) 11th-12th May 2nd weekend in May. We have a lovely black ink work by the tutor, Emi, framed in our meeting room.

A materials list is available from the coordinator, Midori Treeve. Registration for Emi's workshop was due during March, but there are 1 or 2 spaces left if you have missed the registration date. (Registration form attached). On payment quote for referee your name and "Emi" to identify workshop payment.

More details will be given when we receive your application. (See form at the end of newsletter)

OTHER AWAS TUTORED WORKSHOPS: In the planning stage

It is really helpful if members contact the coordinator as early as possible, so they can gauge the interest amongst members and avoid the stress of being unsure of meeting our commitment once the tutor has been booked.

AWAS TUTORED WORKSHOP: PASTEL.

The proposed April Pastel workshop with Amanda McClean is not going ahead this year, but may be considered next year if pastelists are willing to commit to attending well ahead of the proposed date. She is a highly qualified artist and tutor, and we look forward to planning a wonderful workshop with her. We have the option to conduct less expensive workshops, perhaps for only one day, instead. Judy Balfour is approaching some artist-tutors in our region, including Steve McCall from Bright, who has conducted pastel workshops with us in the past. Please contact Judy if you are interested in attending a pastel workshop, so planning can go ahead as soon as possible. jybalfour@outlook.com

AWAS TUTORED WORKSHOP: Basic Drawing/colour mixing using watercolour

Another proposed workshop is with Christine Cansfield - Smith from Beechworth. She often also runs "introduction to botanical classes" but our workshop would focus on drawing and colour mixing.

Please contact Judy if interested. jybalfour@outlook.com

WANTED: AN ACRYLIC WORKSHOP FOR THIS YEAR!

Have you any ideas for a workshop tutor this year?? If you have never Coordinated a workshop, there are members who have done so in the past and will be happy to help you approach the tutor, help with costing, advise on dates, timing of registrations and payments and promotion. The committee would love to have more members involved.

RIVERINE en plein air

Alison Percy and Kim Passalacqua
 FRI 22 MARCH - SAT 1 JUNE 2019

...from the Upper Murray to the Lower Riverland

This joint exhibition reveals a unique narrative across the riverine landscape. An artists residency in the remote Clare Valley, South Australia became the turning point in their approach to landscape painting and inspired this exhibition.

This new body of work is a journey focused on capturing unique traits in and around our localised land and river with plein air paintings. This body of work explores similar features in varied environments along the river landscapes.
